

HUMAN RESOURCES (HR) POLICY

1. Introduction

This Human Resources (HR) Policy establishes the principles, rules, and guidelines governing employment practices within the company. The objective of this policy is to create a professional, respectful, safe, and productive work environment while ensuring fair treatment for all employees.

All employees are expected to read, understand, and comply with the policies outlined in this document.

2. Employment Policy

2.1 Recruitment and Selection

The company is committed to hiring qualified individuals based on merit, skills, experience, and job requirements. Recruitment decisions will be made without discrimination based on race, religion, gender, age, disability, or any other protected characteristic.

2.2 Probation Period

New employees may be required to complete a probation period of up to six months. During this period, performance and suitability for the role will be assessed.

2.3 Employee Records

Employees are responsible for providing accurate personal information and notifying HR of any changes to their address, contact information, or other relevant details.

3. Working Hours and Attendance

3.1 Working Hours

The standard working schedule is from 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Monday through Friday, with a one-hour lunch break.

3.2 Attendance

Employees are expected to maintain regular attendance and punctuality. Any delays, absences, or inability to attend work should be reported to the supervisor as soon as possible.

3.3 Overtime

Overtime work must be approved by management in advance and will be compensated according to company policy and applicable labor laws.

4. Leave and Time Off

4.1 Annual Leave

Employees are entitled to paid annual leave according to company policy and applicable labor regulations.

4.2 Sick Leave

Employees who are unable to work due to illness should notify their manager promptly. Medical documentation may be required for extended absences.

4.3 Public Holidays

Employees will receive public holidays as recognized by the applicable government regulations.

4.4 Emergency Leave

The company may grant emergency leave in cases of unforeseen personal or family circumstances.

5. Compensation and Benefits

5.1 Salary Payment

Employees will receive their salary on a monthly basis through the designated payment method.

5.2 Benefits

Eligible employees may receive benefits such as health insurance, retirement plans, bonuses, or other benefits as determined by the company.

5.3 Deductions

All statutory deductions, including taxes and other government-mandated contributions, will be applied in accordance with applicable laws.

6. Employee Conduct

6.1 Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to maintain high standards of professionalism, honesty, and integrity while representing the company.

6.2 Respectful Workplace

The company promotes a workplace culture based on mutual respect, teamwork, and cooperation. Harassment, bullying, discrimination, or abusive behavior will not be tolerated.

6.3 Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential business information, customer data, and company records. Unauthorized disclosure of confidential information may result in disciplinary action.

6.4 Conflict of Interest

Employees must avoid situations where personal interests conflict with the interests of the company.

7. Performance Management

The company encourages continuous improvement and professional development.

7.1 Performance Reviews

Employees may participate in periodic performance evaluations to assess achievements, identify development opportunities, and establish future goals.

7.2 Training and Development

The company may provide training programs and professional development opportunities to enhance employee skills and performance.

8. Health, Safety, and Security

The company is committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace.

Employees must:

- Follow all health and safety procedures.
 - Report accidents, injuries, and unsafe conditions immediately.
 - Use company equipment responsibly.
 - Comply with security and emergency procedures.
-

9. Information Technology and Company Property

9.1 Use of Company Resources

Company equipment, systems, and resources are provided primarily for business purposes.

9.2 Acceptable Use

Employees must use company computers, email systems, internet access, and other resources responsibly and in compliance with company standards.

9.3 Return of Property

Upon termination of employment, employees must return all company property, including equipment, documents, access cards, and confidential information.

10. Disciplinary Procedures

Employees who violate company policies or engage in misconduct may be subject to disciplinary action, which may include:

- Verbal warning
- Written warning
- Suspension
- Termination of employment

The company reserves the right to investigate any alleged misconduct before taking disciplinary action.

11. Equal Employment Opportunity

The company is committed to providing equal employment opportunities to all employees and applicants. Employment decisions will be based solely on qualifications, performance, and business needs.

Discrimination or harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.

12. Termination of Employment

Employment may be terminated by either the employee or the company in accordance with employment agreements and applicable labor laws.

Employees are expected to provide the required notice period before resignation unless otherwise agreed.

13. Policy Review and Amendments

The company reserves the right to modify, update, or amend this HR Policy at any time to ensure compliance with legal requirements and business needs.

Employees will be informed of significant policy changes.

Company Name: _____

Effective Date: _____

Approved By: _____

Employee Acknowledgment

I acknowledge that I have read and understood the HR Policy and agree to comply with its provisions.

Employee Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____